The image shows the Scopus website interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Search', 'Sources', 'SciVal', and other icons. Below this, the 'Start exploring' section has tabs for 'Documents', 'Authors', 'Researcher Discovery', 'Organizations', and 'Scopus AI'. The 'Authors' tab is selected and highlighted with a red box. Under 'Search authors using:', there are three radio buttons: 'Author name' (selected and highlighted with a red box), 'ORCID', and 'Keyword'. Below these are input fields for 'Enter last name' and 'Enter first name'. A blue 'Search' button is at the bottom right of the search area. A large yellow arrow points from the search area down to a table of results. The table has columns for '作者' (Author), '文獻' (Documents), '機構' (Institution), '城市' (City), and '國家/地區' (Country/Region). The first row shows an author with 317 documents, affiliated with National Tsing Hua University in Hsinchu, Taiwan. The author's name is highlighted with a red box.
